basic chords-OK

The cover clearly says "Easy Guitar," and unlike some that say "Easy" only in the sense that it's easy if you're Eric Clapton, these arrangements are very easy and clearly designed for the beginning guitarist to sound good right out of the gate. The book contains a large selection of Christmas music, both secular and religious. Some come with TAB, and others have merely the melody and chord accompaniment. So for pickers or simple strummers, there's something for everyone. Old favorites and some newer songs are included. The only caveat is that most are keyed in either C or G Major, so a long set from this book will have a certain sameness of sound. But for a beginner around the holidays, this book is a treasure trove of favorites, classics, and an awful lot of fun. (Most of the lyrics are included as well for those inevitable sing-alongs.) Worth the price, and certainly a great addition to any aspiring guitarist's collection.

Many songs to choose from. Beginning guitarists will find some relatively easy songs to play, which is nice.

Not quite what I expected. Not as extensive music for each song as I would have liked.

Song I haven't heard in years. Its a good purchase. I enjoy it.

Most songs easy to play. Liked cords at top of each song.

lots of choice for all this is a really nice book!
