Tafari Makonnen was born on July 23rd 1892 at Ejarsa Goro in the hills of Harargha. Makonnen Walda-Mikael, his father, had recently been appointed Ras and governed this vast province of eastern Ethiopia from the ancient walled city of Harar. In 1905, the year before Ras Makonnen's death, the young Tafari received his first military title-Dejazmach. Following in his father's footsteps, he was appointed Ras of Harar in 1910. Upon the succession of Empress Zawditu in 1917 Ras Tafari became Regent to the throne and in November 1930 was crowned Negus Negast Haile Sellassie 1.

All good books can still be improved upon and this is no exception. That doesn't take away from it's value as a collection of photographs of the events surrounding the November 2, 1930 Coronation of His Imperial Majesty Emperor Haile Selassie I. wadada, Jah-Jim

This thinnest of books is nothing more than a handful of poorly captioned photos. Its price is beyond belief considering its paltry contents. Be warned.
