Customer Reviews

Some modified recipes should be easily recognizable such as Halloween Sugar Cookies, Mummy Dogs, Popcorn Balls, and Dirt Cake. Others are rather creative including Candy Corn Cheesecake, Halloween Apple Mouth Bites, Spider Krispies, and Hoot Owl Pretzels (and with several of the recipes involving candy corn I'd certainly have a hard time deciding which one to try first since that is one of my favorites!). While photos aren't necessarily required since none of the recipes are terribly complex, I too would have liked to see the end result if only because the Mouth Bites, Spider Krispies, and Hoot Owls ought to appear really neat. Has handy links in the table of contents to access any recipe readily and also includes the free gift "55 Quick & Easy Recipes" for Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner, Soups, Salads, Desserts and More making this a good deal!! I'll be concentrating on reviewing Halloween themed book thru the month of October for the second year running so feel free to "see all my reviews" most recently if you're of a like mind and am looking for some spooky stuff this time of year.

I love the candy corn and the mummy dogs as well as the Halloween Rice Krispie treats and the popcorn balls. All these recipes are are really great treats for you Halloween get to gather. Thank you and enjoy your day.

Cute little recipes and most are easy and quick enough for kids to do!

Interesting recipes for the Halloween period.

I have found a new cookbook author to love! I have now ordered several of Hannie P. Scott's books and I enjoy reading every one of them. Try her, trust me, you will love her.

It was not worth it!!

Wish it would have had pictures.

Terrible book.No pictures.Do not understand how should look the dish.It is unclear how to serve the dish.Some recipes still need to edit, the text is shifted to the side.Recipes too short and not interesting.Many complex ingredients.This book is complete trash.The author is an Amateur.I do not advise anyone!Don't waste your money and time!!!
