Since 1979, Randall has combined his love of wilderness and adventure sports with his passion for photography. His intimate knowledge of the landscapes and sports that he photographs allows him to find the intersections of magical light and stunning subject matter that produce exceptional images. Randall's landscape photographs are an authentic record of his backcountry experiences. They are not enhanced digitally or in the darkroom. At age 48, Randall has accumulated 750 photographic credits, including 50 covers, and has sold over 9,000 prints. His work has been published in calendars produced by Audobon, Avalanche, Barnes & Noble, Brown Trout, and Sierra Club. He has also been published in more than 50 magazines, including Outdoor Photographer, National Geographic Adventure, and Petersen's Photographic. His first book of landscape photographs, Rocky Mountain National Park Impressions , was published in 2004 by Farcountry Press.

This was purchased as a going away present for a visiting scholar. It is very nicely bound, pictures and paper are of high quality. Several of the people in my "group" who signed the book made positive comments.

I have purchased a lot of coffee table books, and this one stands out. The photographs are exceptionally clear with rich color and texture. Having lived in Colorado and also vacationed there many times, this book really captures the rugged beauty of the state. I was pleasantly surprised and impressed with the quality of this book.

Perfect coffee table book!

Perfect for a going away gift! I purchased for a family moving from Colorado. I had it out at their going away party for their friends to sign. They loved it and will have the perfect memory now. The artwork is beautiful!

This is such a beautiful book....amazing pictures!! It is the perfect book (and size) for our daughter and soon to be son-in-law to use as their guest book at their Colorado wedding this spring. A wonderful coffee table book that they will enjoy for years to come.

Beautiful. We gave this to our new in-laws who are from South America because their daughter now lives in Colorado.

Great coffee table book but also enjoyable reading and fantastic pictures
