Janet Hubbard-Brown has written many books, both fiction and non-fiction, for children and young adults. She grew up in South Hill, Virginia, where Rick Hendrick was a regular guest. --This text refers to an out of print or unavailable edition of this title.

I didn't realize library bound means small! This book is the size of a child's book . Very disappointed in it. I love the Labonte brothers so I'll keep it but don't assume it's a regular size book. No where did I see measurements so I was fooled . Not worth more than $5 for it's size.

My dad loves the Labonte brothers and I bought this book for christmas and he was very pleased. I have never seen a book like this at a book store and was glad to find something so personalized to his liking.

I bought this book from several years ago and I still own the book to this day. I am saving it for my children when they are born. But this is a great book for little boys who love cars and racing! Tons of great pictures about the Labonte Family racing legacy that still lives on!
