Reclaiming The "C" Word: Daring To Be Church Again (Lutheran Voices)

Synopsis

God is up to something! God is on a mission to save and bless the world, and God calls the church to be part of this mission. That means getting focused, setting people free, taking action, expecting surprises, and being hopeful. A church on God's mission isn't a building or a building plus a pastor. It's people-people who carry out God's mission in the world. Building on her bestselling book, Reclaiming the "L" Word, Kelly A. Fryer gives practical advice on how to transform our idea of church and what that means for our lives as Christians.

Kelly A. Fryer is a missiologist with nearly 20 years experience leading congregations in renewal. She is the author of the best-selling Reclaiming the "L" Word: Renewing the Church from Its Lutheran Core and writer for the No Experience Necessary Bible study series (both Augsburg Fortress). Kelly taught congregational leadership at Luther Seminary in St. Paul, Minnesota, and now serves as executive director of A.R.E.: A Renewal Enterprise, which offers keynote speaking, renewal events, organizational consulting, and leadership coaching.

A very good book that is very easy to read. Kelly has given us a lot of information that can foster action which can produce hope.

Using this and Reclaiming the "L" word in our bible study. Everyone likes the book. It leads to great discussions.

This is a great book to explain the mission of Christian people. Kelly Fryer sets forth through stories and her own personal experience as a Lutheran pastor how Christians are called to be church in the world.
