Hannah Lynn is a self-taught American artist that has been offering her hand-painted Whimsy Girls character art to fans all over the world since 2006. Her artwork can be found in numerous personal collections, and her coloring books have sold in the thousands to fans worldwide. Using traditional materials such as watercolor pencil and ink, she creates each piece entirely by hand. She is best known for her unique faces and use of color. She enjoys meeting her fans at conventions such as Comic Con in San Diego and Salt Lake City, and looks forward to releasing new coloring books and hosting book signings. She currently works out of her home studio in the small city of Idaho Falls, Idaho, residing with her husband, two beautiful daughters, and her many animal companions, including dogs, cats, chickens, ducks, and more!
