Customer Reviews

This book is a must for first-time travellers to Sardinia. It includes how to best travel around the island with very detailed info on the roads to take. There is a bit of history on each town/village plus where to stay and eat along the way. It is a very easy guide to follow and very well presented.

If I could give minus stars I would... Static information for rich tourists. One thing got to me, they got east and west coast wrong...I want my money back.

Great Fun

No pictures...little info
