Hard to find a body of work and teacher as truly engaging as Ajaan Lee. Absolutely riveting guidance and depth into the Thai Forest Tradition of monastic and lay Buddhism. Ajaan Lee gave a remarkable gift to humanity in his wisdom, dedication, and teachings. This volume is a must read for anyone even remotely interested in the causes of stress, their dissolution, and the path to their dissolution. Just truly humbling in every sense of the word...

This book is full of wisdom and pragmatic instructions for living the Dhamma. Ajaan Lee naturally steers away from wordy and philosophical interpretations. His word comes from direct experience in the application of Theravada Buddhism. I have many books and as of lately, this book has been my go to guide for meditative direction and simple explanation of the Dhamma.

The Dhamma should always be given for free!. Ajahn does not authorize people to sell this book!.

So much wisdom, conveyed in a very direct, crisp way, makes this a fabulous 'read'.

This book contains a collection of translations of ajahn Lee's writings. I found his teachings very helpful and inspiring for my practice and would recommend it to anyone following the path of the buddha.
