I am trying to learn Spanish and the English translation helps.

Good book for either someone that wants to learn the prayers in English or Spanish or for someone that just needs a refresher. Left page as the English version and the right page has the Spanish version. I really like this format. Allows you to see/learn the other language while reading it.

This is a very handy book for those who are looking for bilingual daily prayers, Stations of the Cross, the Divine Office standard prayers (e.g., Canticles of Simeon and Mary) and so on. What is missing, however, and the real reason I ordered the book, are translations of the Eucharistic Prayers. All the other parts of the Mass are included, which is helpful, but limited without having the Eucharistic Prayers included. Overall this book is a good buy and useful for the Anglo priest trying to offer Mass (or other devotions) in Spanish.

Helpful in allowing me to improve my bilingual skills

I help with RCIA classes in a predominantly Hispanic community and it was such a joy to have this book to use in the class. Easy to read and the lettering is large. Has bi-lingual prayers that you don't find elsewhere. I totally love this book!

I imagine this would be a great tool for Spanish-speakers wishing to learn prayers in English, but I found it incredibly useful for learning Spanish prayers. It contains all of the prayers for the mass, a great selection of everyday prayers in an easy-to-read format, and all at a great price.

I intend to establish a Hispanic ministry in my community and needed a good translation of the mass to save time
