Peter - and later, his wife, Edna - sought to create fine books that sold at prices even a pauper could afford. Today, still family owned and operated, Peter Pauper Press continues to honor our founders' legacy - and our customers' expectations - of beauty, quality, and value. Author don Miguel Ruiz was born into a family of healers. He was raised in rural Mexico by a curandera (healer) mother and nagual (shaman) grandfather. The family anticipated that don Miguel would embrace its legacy of healing and teaching and, as a nagual, carry forward its esoteric Toltec knowledge. Instead, distracted by modern life, don Miguel chose to attend medical school and became a surgeon. He began teaching in the United States with his mother Sarita in 1987 in Logan Heights, CA. Working with Sarita, he first began with healing practices. As his knowledge of English grew, he realized that he preferred to share his lineage through an oral tradition, rather than a healing tradition. don Miguel's students grew in numbers. He lectured in Santa Fe, NM, Los Angeles, CA, Sacramento, CA, Santa Rosa, CA, and in many other locales. He began to share the wisdom that resulted in the creation of The Four Agreements when he witnessed his students struggling to quiet their minds. He created a specific series of practical tools, that when used by anyone, can result in consistent and long-term personal transformation. The tools are based on common sense, related with simplicity, and have a universal message recognized by many. don Miguel's message is simple, practical, and when implemented even incrementally changes lives.

I love this book. The simplicity is not to be confused with shallowness or silliness. It is deep and deserves several reads. I often give it as a gift. For it truly is a treasure.

This book has really given me a different perspective on life and how I react to situations. I'm still learning and working through some of the chapters, but I've recognized what not to do and what to change just by reading this book. It's a life changer!

The cards are beautiful and will last a long time. They are not flimsy cards they are sturdy and have beautiful pictures on them. I believe though it is important to read the book so you can understand the phrases on the cards. Some cards are just common sense but some you need to have read the book to get what it means. Otherwise Awesome product.

After a hard day or when I'm struggling with a dilemma, I shuffle my cards and ask for insight to my problem. What can I do differently? The cards are so powerful and so accurate. They calm me down and I'm back in control of my life again. I'm in CHOICE again. I buy them frequently for friends and use them at work with the clients I coach. I combine them with the Millionaire Mind cards to keep myself moving forward in positive action!

Great small book to have and give! Beautiful message. I bought it by accident thinking it was the extended version but I honestly don't regret it since this small summarized version could be used as a way to remember it's content. Great for any age :)

these are great cards. highly recommend

Love the Cards. I bring them to work with me every day and when somebody is feeling a little stressed they come over and the person picks card in it makes their day brighter
