Walter Burns and Jay Perrone are writers living in New York City.

I assumed these would be a bit more adult than they actually are since they're listed as adult mad libs, and since they're from the Some eCards brand, which I've found to be hilarious, but so far they've been a pretty big let down. Okay for what they are, but they still feel like children's Mad Libs to me (unless they get more adult as you get further into the book).

I did mad libs in stockings this year. My kids are teenagers and middle schoolers. This one was one of mom and dad's. It was so fun with a glass of wine on the deck.

Some of the most hysterical Mad Libs I've ever done... If you're looking for some good, dirty fun, these Someecards Mad Libs are it.

With the right crowd, these are fabulous! We generally are a funny bunch with off the wall senses of humor, but this Mad Libs put us over the edge. Very funny, and a good gift!

Love mad libs! I used to do them as a kid. I had bought them for my kids and recently found these for my home based business to use as a game. I make copys so i never have to write in book. Love these. Keep your brain working! Learning can be fun(ny)

This is such a fun, rainy day activity. The boyfriend and I try to the Mad Libs water challenge, and this book keeps us laughing so hard it's difficult to keep water in our mouths. I always lose!

Just like my favorite Mad Libs as a kid except these are MUCH MORE FUN! You will not get a raise or promotion if you decide to play these at the office but you will have LOADS Of fun. Three thumbs up and two truckloads of delightful vulgarity.

Gave as a gift-they loved it!
