Good.

This is a story worth reading and re-reading, accessibly written so it is enjoyable for children to read it is also interesting enough to be worth a re-read as an adult.

The story of Noah's ark retold as the moving adventures of a poor animal tamer who is sent to get animals for the ark since Noah's son Ham is too much of a coward. A beautifully written, touching book of human courage and daring. Rosemary Harris combines humour and pathos to form a truly great story. One of my favourites!
