seas a mama's boy. real people do not act this way.they are not so helpful it was nextNey cor

Another excellent episode in the Maple Hills Cozy mystery series. I love this series. In this one it is just a few days before Christmas and Seth comes home for they holiday. He brings his room mate Brian to keep him from being alone. During their dinner on their first night back, a young woman who is very upset comes to the door. She is a school friend of Seth's and she is afraid that someone is trying to kill her. She has a couple of threatening notes and has had crank phone calls. While Hawk and Nikki dig into this, the girl does of an apparent suicide. They did deeper and find that Seth and Brian's fingerprints are on the notes so they bring them in. Now that he son is again in hot water, Nikki digs deeper to get him out of trouble. Between her and Hawk they solve the murder

This is a wonderful book and it is made even more wonderful by it being set at Christmastime. Nikki's son, Seth, is home from college, bringing his roommate, Brian, with him. Everyone is looking forward to a nice and quiet white Christmas after all the cases Nikki and Hawk have been working. Unfortunately, a classmate of Seth's is found murdered and he and Brian are possible suspects. I read this book while the temperatures were close to 100 degrees outside, and this author had me freezing my buns off! I could picture the hazardous road conditions and the beauty of the falling snow. I can't wait to read the next vividly written book by this fabulous author!

What is better the a Christmas book in July. For me, July is the month I try to have most of my Christmas shopping done so a quick read is just what I needed. Seth is home for the break and brings his roommate with him. Murder happens and keeps you turning those pages right to the end. Thanks Wendy this series is great.

I know young people can be violent but I felt for that Brian. To think that his parents never really listened to him. He had to prove something to his father through violence. This book was different from your other books. It was well written just disturbing. Seth had a great Mom and support team.

I truly enjoy this series. Nikki and Hawk find theirselves trying to find the truth about the death of Nikki's son's friend from college. They find many surprises along the way. Another great story by Wendy. I received an ARC for my honest review. Great job Wendy

This book is just as exciting as the last 8! I have enjoyed all of this series and they do keep you guessing until the end. I love reading about the people and their lives and the story lines are always interesting. Great book!

This story is awesome. Nikkei and Hawk are on the trail to find out who killed Seth's friend from college. Well written and good solid characters make this an extremely enjoyable read.
