So many good recipes in this book! Recommended by a friend and it has not disappointed. Very yummy brownies, scones and a good turkey meatloaf. Enjoy!

A friend of mine tested all the salads and soups in this cookbook for the Jr. League of Pasadena many years ago. She gave me a copy when it came out and I have loved it ever since! I've given copies to my sister, daughter and step daughters - marking the pages for them of what I've made and rating each recipe I've tried. I highly recommend this cookbook! Enjoy!

I hoped to get a good perspective on food in Pasadena, but its just another women's club cookbook with very ordinary recipes. I didn't get excited by any of them, so its just another cookbook for the upper shelf of the cookbook bookcase not something I am actually going to use.

I have had this cookbook for years and it is my "go to" book when I need new ideas or am entertaining. I have yet to have a "so, so" recipe from the book. My only complaint about the book is the title for the recipes. For example, "Santa Ana Salad" does not tell me what is in it, so I have to read through each recipe to find what I want. However, since each recipe is so terrific, I am more than willing to read through it to find what I want. Enjoy!

My husband and I both like to cook. We have quite a varied collection of cookbooks, and this is still the best all around source for reliable, tasty meals. We make notes on the pages, recording dates we tried things, and ways we may have tweaked something. Now when I give a copy to anyone (I think I am on #10), I add my own notes of favorites. Recipes are not complicated, but sure to impress. From appetizers to desserts, you will not be disappointed.

California Sizzles provides excellent recipes that are devoid of the blood-sweat-and tears with which many of us are too familiar. I learned of this book at a lunch where one of the cookbook's praiseworthy recipes was served. There was almost a stunned silence when the group learned I didn't have it on my bookshelf. Well, I do now and don't regret it for a minute. American cuisine has long been extremely underrated.

If I could only have one cookbook, this would be it! Every recipe I have tried is superb. I got this as a gift from the best cook I know, my mother, and have given it as a gift several times. The Ginger Cookies are the best. They are the only cookies I make anymore.

Great cookbook!!!
