Customer Reviews

This test prep book was jointly created by the editorial staff of IES Publications, a company based primarily in Metuchen, NJ. The company is headed by Khalid Khashoggi and Arianna Astuni, who together have spent the past 15 years leading students to massive score increases, perfect SAT and ACT scores, and acceptances to the highest-ranked American and international universities.

Works for my kids!

Very Helpful

Good

I like this series of books. The passages are sufficiently rigorous and the questions are comparable to the real test. The answer explanations are online, which is an extra step, but it keeps the book slim and easily portable, so I don't have a problem with that. I use this book with SAT students as well as with any of my struggling high school readers.

I was initially quite worried about the selection of this book because many SAT books made from organisations other than College Board usually fail to pursue the format of the text. But this book exactly corresponds the format, style and type of questions and texts that are encountered in the actual exam. Really glad to prepare for the new SAT with this book and I recommend this to everyone who is really concerned with the accomplishing of the highest score.

Brilliant book, similar to real test. It includes 10 tests, that is the best part of this book. Each and every question are well written and pretty much the same format as the real test.

After searching through various forums about the materials, I decided to purchase this book. The practice tests follows the format of that of the released tests. What I like best is the explanations, which follow the Collegeboard's thought process! I purchased the verbal and the history ones too! 3 weeks till my last exam! Let's rock reading!

Reading passages are too short. They have about 65-75 lines long. In the real SAT, or in Official College Board material, passages have 75-120 lines. This book will give you a false assumption that you are prepared.
