Customer Reviews

I am unbelievably hooked on this series! It is so good, I can't help but keep reading and reading. Addicting! Page turning! This series has it all. Aurora and Jorah are the perfect couple! I am so happy that this series has been gradual in their romance and didn't jump into it too quickly, but I cannot WAIT to see more of them in book 3. We are really getting a good idea of this world as we step outside of Ryferia and into more of the magic that Jorah comes from. We still get to see what is happening in Ryferia (it's not good but hopefully Aurora and Jorah will be back soon!) by seeing how Raith is handling things with Aurora's uncle now on the throne and Raith's brother becoming crazier every day. But now power is turning to others, new kings on the throne and Aurora finding out more about herself and what she is capable of, it will be interesting to see who all survives in the upcoming battle. I am so excited for book 3!!! recommend this series and authors!

Super story about magical beings that don't realize that they are magical. Very involving and fun to read. Different perspective on the heroine. She doesn't feel or think she is very pretty, however she has a beautiful heart and soul. She will do anything for her people yet it seems as though death and bloodshed are the only paths to freeing them. Aurora comes into her own in this installment of her saga. Can't wait to read the final chapter !

Second book picks up where the first one left off and we learn how Aurora is coping with being more than an infirm with her newfound powers of a dryad. Quite a few questions are answered and we get to see the relationship develop between not only Aurora and Jorah but also the rest of her entourage as she finds her place among them as a confident magic wielder and ruler. I am waiting with great impatience for book 3.

The adventure continues with Aurora and Jorah and their unlikely band. I love the magical cat...It isn't until this book that I really saw the Sleeping Beauty reference. The writing is descriptive and immerses the reader into a fantastical world that I can't wait to join again in the next book.

Loved this book. Hooked on the series.

Great book can't wait till the next one. I don't really get the retelling of a fairy tale but I love the story nonetheless

I was hooked early! Love the book, only sad that I have to wait for the next one.

great story
